GIRL EAGER TO WED REJECTED YOUTH WHEN $2,000,000 LOOMS

OH, MOTHER, FETCH THE BLINDERS! French folk resent the charge that Dixville is a place of light morals and lighter clothing. American girls, they say, are responsible for many of the daring innovations at the resort. Behold, then, Virginia and Betty Stanley of New York in their favorite sea togs. (U. & U.)

GOOD-BY, SWEETHEART! Master Marco Stamper, 8, youngest flier in the world, is receiving a word of warning about "banking" too steeply from his sister as she buttons his flying jacket. He lives at Chatham, England. The youngster's plane was made by his father on air-rail nights. Solidly and powerfully built. (U. & U.)

HARVEST TIME! The beautiful American bride (left) has a long list of requisite guests to choose from. This one of satin, embellished with old lace, is worn by Dorothy Ward, the actress. One of the most gorgeous of the new bridal gowns. An exclusive Boston American fashion. (W. W.)

A SEA SMILE! Miss Constance Young, quiet (right) of 16 Forest Rd., Quincy, a pleased winner in the sea beauty test. A check for $5 will be sent to her. Why don't you enter? If the photo is clear, you may win. Address Pictorial Editor, Boston American. Unused pictures will be returned. Join, girls!

MRS. A. L. HAZER. If you journey to Minneapolis by auto, will give you the "glad hand." She is one of the city representatives who welcome motorists to the city. (Int.)

CRASH! Mrs. Mollie Bjorstedt Mallory, American champion, will have plenty of opportunity to show her speed when she meets Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup, formerly at Boston, at Forest Hills (L. I.) on Monday. The winner of this match will meet the French marvel, Miss Langlen, who arrived here today. (C.)

GERMANY, strangely enough, is still destroying her war material. These costly helmets, after they are ruined, will be resold into something more peaceful. It has taken Germany three years to destroy war goods. (W. W.)

ELEANOR MIGNAULT (right) of Dorchester, one of the Teaneau Beach mermaids, taking an active interest in the Boston American's bathing carnival Aug. 27.

FISH TODAY, LADY! Here is Charley Chaplin disguised as a fisherman. Has just won membership to Catalina Island Club by landing 120-pound tuna. Can't join club until you have caught a "whopper." And you gotta prove it, too. (Int.)

IN DOUBLE NITCH NOW! Dr. George T. Harding, father of the President, between blanches is trying hard to keep away from the ubiquitous news hounds who want to know all about his romance. She is $2, formerly his secretary. (Int.)

THE THRILL OF A LIFETIME! Picture yourself on a spray-lashed deck, an inquisitive dolphin poking his head up here and there on the water's surface, and just ahead of you, her white sail spread to the breeze, is the American yacht Tarsipchore licking the far out of King George's old mud snout, the Britanna, during the Cowes regatta, Isle of Wight. Ain't it a grand and glorious feeling? This photo was taken just after the American boat swept into the lead, which she held to the finishing line. Insert shows Major Hockstall-Smith (left) of England and Richard Boardman of Boston, spectators.

TRUE LOVE (MAYBE)! Walter Buntin's "best girl" refused to wed him. He discovered process of tempering steel and has received an offer of $2,000,000 for it. Now she yearns to wed him. (U. & U.)

COPY CATS! That's what all you girls are who have bobbed your hair. The Fijians bobbies were among the first to start the fad. This young lady is Adl Mckenzie Batta, nurse to the children of Sir Cecil Rodwell, Governor of Fiji. Observe the large wooden comb. (U. & U.)

MOMENTS INVESTED IN IDLENESS ARE SURE TO BRING THEIR HOURS OF TOIL

TWO N. E. CHAMPIONS SHORN OF RING VICTORIES IN TRIPLE A. BOUTS

By JACK CONWAY.

Jimmy Russell proved that Peter Herman has no monopoly on reigning ring titles when he secured a victory in his ten-round battle with Johnny Clinton for the New England lightweight championship at the Army A. A. A. bouts at Mechanics Building, Freetown.

The bout was the 125-pounder in this sector of the land of the brave until he was beaten by Clinton last winter. Just to prove that a man may be beaten but never out, as the door of opportunity, the Brockton puncher attended strictly in business, and had the satisfaction of regaining his lost laurels.

It cannot be said that Russell lost much of a margin in his favor, but the mill ended. The battle was so close that the fighter would probably have been declared a draw in the day before the Boxing Commission went into power.

Russell had the shade, but it was not a small one. The Brocktoner's brilliant work in the last two frames carried him to victory.

Clinton had a slight advantage at the end of the eighth frame. At the end of this stage of the fight, if the Eddie Mack entry was going to retain his championship.

Russell apparently realized that it was up to him to do some regular boxing if he were to avoid going down in the ninth of defeat. And he came through. Russell fought a real battle in the ninth round, and he was able to get back to the ring.

Russell also set a fast pace in the tenth round and took the honors by the proverbial shade.

Clinton had the best of the going in the first, second, seventh and eighth rounds. The determined champion had the edge in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth rounds. At the end of the tenth round, the Brocktoner was still in the lead.

Jack Dwyer, an English heavyweight champion, retained his title by beating a local contender, Jameson, in a ten-round bout at the end of the frame on account of a badly injured right hand. The former heavyweight champion, who was the only one in the second round who was not a heavy blow, was the only one who was not a heavy blow.

RUTH DENIES HE ASPIRES TO BE A MANAGER

IN BIG LEAGUES

By BABE RUTH

44 home runs to date, 1921

Philadelphia, Aug. 13.—Now they tell me I'm to be a manager. I've heard a lot of funny ones but that is the prize yarn of 1921.

A certain sport writer in Philadelphia, well liked and well known for his customary conservative judgment, tells me the "wise boys" have it that I am to manage a major league club next year.

I have had a lot of offers to be a manager, but I have turned them all down. I am not interested in being a manager.

When the Hatched Her Lamp Above

Eight Little

Sweet and Low

Under the Window

Three Dances Brought

Wanderer's Song

Peace Little Will Come Tonight

Outrigger

It is Quiet
